

Members Invitation

SPECIAL PRESENTATION FOR MEMBERS

Prospects for the construction industry in today's economic climate

We are privileged to be able to offer members and their guests a special presentation by Dr Azar Jamine, Director of Econometrix (Pty) Ltd., and one of the foremost economists in the country.

Dr Jamine will be presenting his views on the prospects for the construction industry given the prevailing local and overseas economic conditions.

All members and their guests are welcome to attend this unique occasion, and hear from a well-recognised and respected economist – with over forty years of experience.

A regular commentator on economic events in the media, Dr Jamine has conducted over 4 000 presentations to leading client corporations and other institutions, as well as at conferences dealing with the local and international economic environment.
